

Fresher's Party held at AIT

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE ■ KANPUR

Allenhouse Institute of Technology (AIT), Rooma organised a fresher party 'Tushagni 2010' on the institute premises. The function was inaugurated by Prof SK Lal. The senior students gave a warm welcome to the students who had taken admissions for the new session.

Director of the Institute, Dr AP Verma, made an appeal to the students to work hard and ensure that they contribute towards nation's uplift and ensure a golden future for themselves.

The Saraswati Vandana was presented by Shipra, Nikita and a welcome song was presented by Amreen. An introduction session was held where the senior and junior students interacted. Later, two short skits 'Popat Ki Pathshala' and 'Andher Nagri Chaupat Raja' was also held. Students later performed dance and enthralled the audience. Prominent present on the occasion were Dr Dipika, Dr Hema, Prachi, Dr Deepa and Rishikant.

AF VOLLEYBALL: The inter command civilian volleyball championship 2010 took place at Chakeri. Total eight teams took part from various commands. A special team from Headquarters also participated in the championship. The event was inaugurated by Air Commodore, PP Khandekar. The tournament was being conducted as per Volleyball Federation of India.

Students of Allen House Institute of Technology, Rooma presenting a cultural programme at the institute.

Pioneer

RADIO JOCKEY: The Academy of Broadcasting organised a seminar at the Juhari Devi Girls PG College on Monday where it informed the students about the career prospects of Radio Jockey.

Director, Dr Sushila Mishra said that in future 4000 community stations were likely to be opened and this will enhance job prospects.

She said the institute will open its branches in UP and Uttarakhand. She said the institute will teach voice modulation, presentation and art layout for advertisements. Anchoring tips will also be given to the students.

HOMAGE PAID TO VIDYARTHIIJI: The Ali Jauhar Fans' Association president, Hayat Zafar Hashmi paid homage to Vidyarthiji on the eve of his birth anniversary. The members offered floral tributes to the great soul.